

33

MYSTERIOUS MAN:

p

Run-ning a-way— let's do it, free from the ties— that bind.—

No more des-pair— or bur-dens to bear,— out there in the yon - der.—

41

Run-ning a-way— go to it. Where did you have— in mind?—

Have to take care:— un - less there's a "where",— you'll on - ly be wan - der - ing blind. Just more ques-tions, diff - 'rent kind. Where are we to go? Where are we ev - er to go?—

49

57

(MYSTERIOUS MAN)

Run-ning a-way— we'll do it. Why sit a-round,— re-signed?—

58 59 60

Trou-ble is, son,— the farth-er you run,— the more you feel un - de-fined— for what you have left— un - done and, more, what you've left be -

61 62 63 64

65 66 67

ten. rall.

68

hind.

69 70 71

a tempo